

CALL FOR PAPERS COMPETITION

Greece: From Economic Rescue to Recovery and Reform?

Submission Deadline: 12 October 2018

The Greek Politics Specialist Group (GPSG) of the PSA invites Working Papers under the call “Greece: From Economic Rescue to Recovery and Reform?” Papers should present research conducted on the impact of the debt crisis on Greek economic, political and social domains. We particularly encourage comparative, cross-disciplinary and collaborative research, as well as papers featuring original ideas and empirical data. All methodological and epistemological approaches based on sound social science reasoning are welcome. Selected papers will be published in the GPSG Working Paper series. The best paper will receive an award of £120.

Topics

Papers need to focus on one or more of the following indicative topics:

- Crisis’ driven social and structural transformations
- Is there a new Greek economy after the crisis?
- Foreign policy impact of the Greek crisis
- Politics without Resources: The Greek Political System under Austerity
- The End of Bailout Policies? Narratives and Policy Options
- The remaking of ideological space

Submission Guidelines

Papers (including paper title, 200-word abstract, institutional affiliation and full contact details) should be submitted to: papers@gpsg.org.uk copying manoli@aegean.gr. Papers must be written as academic articles and not have been published previously or submitted for publication elsewhere. Authors may indicate whether their paper can be included in a panel proposal to be submitted to the 69th Political Studies Association Annual International Conference (15 – 17 April 2019).

Papers must be written in English language and be proof-read before being submitted.

Bibliography: Papers should follow the Harvard Referencing System.

There is no set word limit for Papers, although we would encourage prospective contributors to aim for a length of 3,000 – 4,000 words.

Please address all enquiries to Panagiota Manoli at manoli@aegean.gr.
